 - (s) do anything else that is lawful and incidental or conducive to attaining Friends of the Albert Hall objects and purposes.

PART II - MEMBERSHIP

3. Membership qualifications

- 3.1 A person or Incorporated Association is qualified to be a member if the person or Incorporated Association –
- (a) has applied for membership in accordance with rule 4.1; and
 - (b) has been approved for membership of The Friends by the Committee of The Friends; and
 - (c) is a member of the community or Incorporated Association with an interest in the history, use and future of the Albert Hall, the Albert Hall Heritage Precinct, the Albert Hall Impact Area and who will uphold the objects of Friends of the Albert Hall.

4. Application for membership

- 4.1 An application by a person or Incorporated Association for membership of Friends of the Albert Hall –
- (a) shall be made in writing on The Friends current membership form; and
 - (b) shall be accompanied by the annual membership fee and joining fee (if any); and
 - (c) shall be lodged with the Committee.
- 4.2 As soon as is practicable after receiving an application for membership, the Committee will determine whether to approve or to disapprove the application.
- 4.3 Once the Committee determines to disapprove an application for membership, the Committee shall as soon as practicable notify the applicant of that disapproval and refund any current fees paid.
- 4.4 Once the Committee approves an application, the name of the applicant will be entered in the register of members and, upon the name being so entered, the applicant shall become a member or associate member of the Friends of the Albert Hall.
- 4.5 Upon becoming a member or associate member, the member agrees to abide by the provisions of these rules, and any policies and procedures formulated under these rules.

5. Membership entitlements not transferable

- 5.1 A right, privilege or obligation which a person has by reason of being a member of The Friends –
- (a) is not capable of being transferred or transmitted to another person or organisation; and
 - (b) terminates upon cessation of the person's membership or upon the person or organisation falling to renew membership and pay the annual membership fee within three months of it falling due.

6. Cessation of membership

- 6.1 A person or an Incorporated Association ceases to be a member of The Friends if the person or Incorporated Association –
- (a) dies, or in the case of an Incorporated Association, is wound up;
 - (b) resigns from membership or is not eligible for membership as in rule 3.1 (a) (b) and (c);
 - (c) is expelled from The Friends; or
 - (d) fails to renew membership of The Friends.

7. Resignation of membership

- 7.1 A member is not entitled to resign from membership of The Friends except in accordance with this rule.
- 7.2 A member who has paid all amounts payable by the member to The Friends may resign from membership of The Friends by first giving notice (being not less than one month or, if the Committee has determined, a shorter period) in writing to the Committee of the member's intention to resign and, upon the expiration of the period of notice, the member ceases to be a member.
- 7.3 Where a person or Incorporated Association ceases to be a member, the Committee shall make an appropriate entry in the register of members recording the date on which the member ceased to be a member.

7.4 A member shall cease to be a member if they do not renew membership and pay the annual membership fee within three months of it falling due.

8. Fees

8.1 The entrance fee to The Friends is $1 or, if any other amount has been determined by resolution of the committee, the other amount.

8.2 The annual membership fee of The Friends is $2 or, if any other amount has been determined by resolution of the committee, that other amount.

8.3 Different membership fees may be fixed for different classes of membership.

8.4 The annual membership fee is for a period of one year from the date the member's name is entered on the register of members and each subsequent annual membership fee covers subsequent periods of one year.

9. Members' liabilities

9.1 The liability of a member to contribute towards the payment of Friends of the Albert Hall's debts and liabilities or the costs, charges and expenses of its winding up is limited to the amount (if any) unpaid by the member in relation to membership, unless the debt or liability has been incurred through the unauthorised action of that member.

9.2 The Friends or a member shall not bear any responsibility for the safety or well being of any member.

9.3 Each member engages in any Friends of the Albert Hall Inc. activity entirely at his or her own risk.

10. Disciplining of members

10.1 Friends of the Albert Hall may use the following for the discipline of a member or members:

10.2 Subject to these Rules, if the Committee is of the opinion that a member has refused or neglected to comply with these Rules, or has persistently and wilfully acted in a manner prejudicial to the interests of Friends of the Albert Hall, the Committee may by resolution –

- (a) suspend that member from membership of the association for a specified period; or
- (b) expel that member from the association.

10.3 A resolution of the Committee under sub-rule 10.2 does not take effect unless –

- (a) at a meeting held in accordance with rule 10.4, the Committee confirms the resolution; and
- (b) if the member exercises a right of appeal to the association under this rule, the association confirms the resolution in accordance with this rule.

10.4 A meeting of the Committee to confirm or revoke a resolution passed under rule 10.2 must be held not earlier than 14 days, and not later than 28 days, after notice has been given to the member in accordance with rule 10.3.

10.5 For the purposes of giving notice in accordance with rule 10.3, the Secretary (or another member of the Committee nominated by the Committee) must, as soon as practicable, cause to be given to the member a written notice –

- (a) setting out the resolution of the Committee and the grounds on which it is based; and
- (b) stating that the member, or his or her representative, may address the Committee at a meeting to be held not earlier than 14 days and not later than 28 days after the notice has been given to that member; and
- (c) stating the date, place and time of that meeting; and
- (d) informing the member that he or she may do one or both of the following –
 - (i) attend that meeting;

- (ii) give to the Committee before the date of that meeting a written statement seeking the revocation of the resolution;
 - (e) informing the member that, if at that meeting, the Committee confirms the resolution, he or she may not later than 48 hours after that meeting, give the Secretary a notice to the effect that he or she wishes to appeal to Friends of the Albert Hall in general meeting against the resolution.
- 10.6 At a meeting of the Committee to confirm or revoke a resolution passed under rule 10.2, the Committee must –
- (a) give the member, or his or her representative, an opportunity to be heard; and
 - (b) give due consideration to any written statement submitted by the member; and
 - (c) determine by resolution whether to confirm or to revoke the resolution.
- 11. Right of appeal of disciplined member
- 11.1 If at the meeting of the Committee, the Committee confirms the resolution, the member may, not later than 48 hours after that meeting, give the Secretary a notice to the effect that he or she wishes to appeal to Friends of the Albert Hall in a general meeting against the resolution.
- 11.2 If the Secretary receives a notice under rule 11.1, he or she must notify the Committee and the Committee must convene a general meeting of the Friends of the Albert Hall to be held within one month after the date on which the Secretary received the notice.
- 11.3 At a general meeting of Friends of the Albert Hall convened under rule 11.2 –
- (a) no business other than the question of the appeal may be conducted; and
 - (b) the Committee may place before the meeting details of the grounds for the resolution and the reasons for the passing of the resolution; and
 - (c) the member, or his or her representative, must be given an opportunity to be heard; and
 - (d) the members present must vote by secret ballot whether the resolution should be confirmed or revoked.
- 11.4 A resolution is confirmed if, at the general meeting, not less than three-quarters of the members vote in person in favour of the resolution. In any other case, the resolution is revoked.

PART VI – MISCELLANEOUS

34. Alteration of objects and rules

- 34.1 Proposed changes to these rules can be considered at any general meeting whether annual, or general, provided due notice has been given.
- 34.2 If a member or group of members opposing the proposed change so requests, a statement of the reasons for their opposition must likewise be circulated.
- 34.3 Any member of Friends of the Albert Hall may speak to the proposed rule change at the meeting at which it is considered.
- 34.4 A rule change is passed by at least three-quarters of the votes of those members of The Friends who, being entitled to vote, vote in person or by proxy as allowed in rules 28 and 29.

35. Policies and procedures

- 35.1 Friends of the Albert Hall may formulate:
 - (a) policies on issues as required, and
 - (b) procedures for carrying out its operations or that otherwise relate to the implementation of matters provided for in these rules.
- 35.2 The role of policies and procedures is to provide an orderly way for Friends of the Albert Hall to proceed with its business from year to year, and to keep track of decisions made, stances taken, or procedures established or utilised, which may be helpful in future years.
- 35.3 Policies and procedures must not be inconsistent with these rules, but if they are, the provision of the rules prevails over an inconsistent provision in a policy or procedure.
- 35.4 Policies and procedures may be adopted, changed or revoked:
 - (a) in the case of policies, by simple majority at a General Meeting called for the purpose or the Annual General Meeting with due notice;
 - (b) the substance of the proposal must be circulated to all members, and
 - (c) in the case of procedures, by simple majority at any Committee meeting but notice and the substance of the proposal, must be circulated to all Committee members before the meeting.

36. Common seal

- 36.1 The common seal of The Friends shall be kept and stored securely by a member nominated by the Committee.
- 36.2 The seal may be applied only to a document that requires the seal to be applied and with the authority of the Committee.
- 36.3 The common seal shall not be affixed to any instrument except by the authority of the Committee. The affixing of the common seal shall be attested by any two members of the Committee authorised to do so by the Committee.

37. Custody and inspection of books

- 37.1 Subject to the Act, the regulation and these rules, the secretary must keep in his or her custody or under his or her control all records, books, and other documents relating to The Friends.
- 37.2 Friends of the Albert Hall must keep and maintain a register of its members, and must enter any prescribed particulars in the register.
- 37.3 The records, books and other documents of The Friends shall be open to inspection at a place in the territory, free of charge, by a member of The Friends at any reasonable hour.

37.4 A request to inspect the records, books and other documents from Friends of the Albert Hall auditor, Public Officer, or from the Registrar, must be met.

38. Special Resolutions

38.1 A resolution of The Friends is taken to be a special resolution if—

- (a) it is passed at a general meeting of The Friends, being a meeting of which at least 21 days notice, accompanied by notice of intention to propose the resolution as a special resolution, has been given to the members of The Friends; and
- (b) it is passed by at least three-quarters of the votes of those members of The Friends who, being entitled to vote, vote in person or by proxy as allowed in rules 28 and 29.

39. Service of notices

39.1 For the purpose of these rules, a notice may be served by or on behalf of The Friends upon any member either personally or by sending it by post to the member at the member's address shown in the register of members or by sending it electronically to the member at the member's address shown in the register of members.

39.2 Where a document is sent to a person by properly addressing, prepaying and posting to the person a letter containing the document, the document shall unless the contrary is proved, be deemed for the purpose of these rules to have been served on the person at the time at which the letter would have been delivered in the ordinary course of post.

39.3 Where a document is sent to a person electronically, upon receipt by the sender of an acknowledgement that the communication has been properly transmitted to the recipient, the document shall unless the contrary is proved, be deemed for the purpose of these rules to have been served on the person twenty four hours after the transmission has taken place.
